THE PLAY OVER.

The farewell review of the citizen soldiers on Friday last by Governor Tejedor was a grateful finale to the risky drama enacted in this city last week. That Dr Tejedor has gained great popularity by the part he played in recent stirring events is amply testified by the hearty cheers which greeted him as he passed through the streets to the several barracks of the Volunteers.

A little before 6 o'clock H·E. entered an open carriage, accompanied by his Minister of Finance, Mr Balbin, Dr Alcorta, Minister of Government, and Colonel Garmendia, Chief of Police. Preceding the carriage went a body guard of the following gentlemen, all splendidly mounted:—Colonel D. Julio Campos, Comandante en Jefe de las fuerzas de la Provincia, and President del Tiro Nacional; Colonel D. Jose Y. Arias, Jefe del Estado Mayor; ayudantes Rebusion, Jacobo and Julio Varela, Amaral, Rivera, Benitez, Garcia, Huergo. Dr Fuentes and Comisario Parravicini.

Several carriages followed the Governor's, the leading one containing Dres. D. Delfin B. Huergo and D. Juan A. Garcia, Vice-President and Vocal of the Comision Directiva del Tiro Nacional, D. Martin Boneo, Treasurer, and D. Juan Andrez Dominguez, Secretary-General.

The review began at 6 o'clock, the first Battalion which the Governor passed being the Maipu, drawn up in Calle Florida, between Piedad and Rivadavia, commanded by Ramon Gomez: then the cortege drove along the streets, stopping in front of the Volunteers in the following order:—

Rifleros; Comandante D. Joaquin Montaña, Calle Corrientes between Florida and Maipu.

Patricios de Buenos Ayres; Comandante D. Alberto Segui, Calle Artes corner of Juncal.

General Lavalle 1°; Comandante D. Benjamin Sastre, Calle Temple between Montevideo and Uruguay.

Resistencia; Comandante D. Ramon J. Ballesteros, Calle Rivadavia between Passo and Larrea.

Bomberos Voluntarios; Comandante D. Enrique O'Gorman, Plaza Lorea.

Ituzaingo; Comandante D. Ramon Rivas, Calle de Moreno between Salta and Santiago del Estero

Tiradores del Sud; Comandante D. Pablo Bonifacio, Calle Buen Orden between Europa and Comercio.

Defensores de Buenos Ayres; Comandante D. Martin Boneo and D. Alberto J. Huergo, Calle Belgrano between Belgrano and Balcarce.

Adolfo Alsina; Comandante D. Jose Maria Reybaud, Calle Moreno between Balcarce and Defensa.

General Lavalle 2°; Comandante D Sebastian N Casares, Calle Piedad between Florida and San Martin.

For each regiment the Governor had a brief Napoleonic address ready. To the Maypus he said:—"You bear a foreign name, but it commemorates an Argentine deed of glory. Happily, events have changed the current of your patriotic intentions, but I know where to find you, if, unhappily, your services be again required."

To the Rifleros—"It is an honour to be a National Guard, but you are more than this, you are the Volunteers of the Republic. Wherever you are, in your barracks or in my own home, I am always with you.

To the Patricios—You bear an illustrious name; let your actions ever be worthy of it.

To the Resistencias—Resistance is your name; it is also my motto. You were the first to arm when the country called. Be the first again if it should have to repeat the summons.

To the 'Bomberos'—Your military organization has terminated, as it only sprang from abnormal events, but your services can be made equally useful to the country in a civil form.

To the 'Ituzaingos'—Your name recalls one of the greatest triumphs of the nation. I salute you, worthy sons of the men who conquered at Ituzaingo.

To the 'Tiradoros del Sud'—You thought that the storm was coming from the South, but the wind has changed, and it now appears in the North. No matter. Let it come from where it may, it will find you ready.

We have no space for more harangues. Evening began to fall as the Governor took farewell of the Lavalle Battalion and ordered his coachman to drive home. We never saw his Excellency look so radiant, and indeed he had cause to be so. From the moment he started till he returned to his private residence it was one continued ovation. The Volunteers cheered, the policemen cheered, the people cheered; the ladies in the balconies waved their handkerchiefs, and even the children were held up and told to clap their tiny hands in honour of the First Magistrate of the Province. We have never witnessed such a sight in Buenos Ayres, and, considering what provoked it, we hope never to witness another. The people can now return safely to their daily avocation; there will be no more drilling and drumming. The National troops at the Chacarita commence their march to the frontier to-day, after the review.

MR. CALVO ON IRELAND.

(From the Siglo.)

The following admirable letter from Mr. N. Calvo, Argentine Emigration Commissioner in Europe, brings to our mind the French axiom that 'Les grandes idèes se rencontrent.' We cannot but feel gratified at the identity of ideas entertained on the subject of relief for Ireland by the distinguished correspondent of the Siglo and by the Standard.

While Mr. Calvo was writing in Brighton we were, strange to say, waiting on Gov Tejedor to obtain a land grant for 500 Irish families from the wets of Ireland. Our viewe for relief did not meet with much approval, yet we have faith that they will yet prevail, both here and at home. The main obstacle they will meet with is the ineradicable love with which the Irish peasant regards the 'sod' on which he was born, and his propensity to regard emigration as but little preferable to death, even by starvation, in the land of his love; but holy as is this sentiment, it must yield, as it has already yielded, to the manifest designs of Providence which have destined the Celtic and Anglo-Saxon races to be the bearers of Civilization and Progress over the face of the earth:—

Brighton, Jan. 8th.

"You ask me for details of our misery here. It is really dreadful. There are an enormous number of small tenants with very large families who are starving. The other day a poor woman came to tell me that she, her husband, and seven children were living on raw Indian meal (maize), as they had no fire to bake it. I ordered 300 trees to be cut and gave them to the tenants as fuel. It is impossible for one landlord to give them sufficient to support life for even two months. The lands are mostly mountainous, and this year's harvest was almost all lost. The small tenants have already eaten up their potatoes, and I know many families who rise hungry and go to bed without having tasted a morsel."

The above extract from a recent letter from Ireland is truly appalling and yet I have seen other details from there still worse. The refusal to pay rent is general, and too exacting landlords have been shot here and there.

Mr. Parnell, M.P., is collecting funds in the United States, partly for charity, partly, I suspect, for political agitation; he has said in New York that blood will flow if the Sligo tenants are evicted.

Emigration to the River Plate would be the salvation of Ireland. The ills of Ireland are chronic. There is not a schoolboy in his first year of Political Economy who cannot tell you the causes that have produced them. They are two—Absenteeism and bad Land Laws. The first means that all the large proprietors spend their immense incomes in other lands and leave their agents to screw the last farthing out of the poor tenants. I think the average rent is thirty shillings an acre, and, with very few exceptions, the tenant is always in arrears with the landlord and dying from hunger.

The infamous land laws, which French economists to a man condemn, have been vainly assailed in Parliament by the Irish members. So you can see that the evil is at the roots and is not to be cured by subscriptions, which may relieve hunger for a short time, but it will come again, as these generous donations do not in any way improve the condition of the Irish peasant permanently or put him in a position to support himself by his own toil.

I refer to this essential point because I believe that the Relief move initiated in London will have a powerful echo in my own country, where the Irish settlers are numerous, rich, and happy. The Irishman is noble and patriotic, and wherever he goes he is still an Irishman, In the U States he is to-day a power in the State, with immense influence in the elections. In Ireland the Irishman is wretched!

In our country the Irish residents are very rich indeed, and there can be no doubt as to their stretching a helping hand to their countrymen at home; but this help, to be of any good, must be of a permanent and radical kind, and I beg to suggest to the Irishmen of the Plate the remedy I consider the best and which will simultaneously benefit old Ireland and our Republic which is their second country, being the birthplace of their children.

I advise—

1st. A General Central Committee at Buenos Ayres, with branches all through the Republic, to raise subscriptions.

2nd. To obtain from the National and Provincial Governments, in trust, one, two, or more of the new settlements (pueblos) marked out on the frontier by the late lamented Adolfo Alsina.

3rd. To cut up same into farm lots and give them to Irish families at 2s. 6d. per acre, the Relief Fund to be exclusively employed in paying the emigrants' passage to Buenos Ayres or Bahia Blanca, and the Argentine Government to give a present of 250 acres each to the first 100 families that come out paying their own passage.

4th. The Government to give board and lodging for five days and free fare to their destination to all the emigrants brought out by the Central Committee, which will also see that they obtain all the benefits of the existing Immigration laws.

5th. The Committee to name agents in the most distressed parts of Irelaud, at its own cost, to invite the Irish Press to aid the movement; to put themselves in communication with all the charitable societies in Ireland, so that these can offer to the poor labourer the chance of becoming a landholder in our country, helping to pay as much of his passage as they can, the Argentine-Irish defraying the balance, and showing him the way to prosperity, security of property, better education and a higher social position.

The Registrar General's Emigration returns from 1851 to 1877 show that emigration is formed by generations. Our work must be to try and turn the current towards the River Plate. This task is the less difficult owing to our having already a large nucleus of prosperous Irish families who are our best advocates, as their wealth and happy condition are living proofs to the new comers of what work can accomplish.

It is only in the Argentine Republic that land is given for nothing: In the United States the uniform price is a dollar (four shillings) per acre, or a little more: In Australia the price is £2 or £3 an acre, and colossal fortunes have been made in land and there are many joint stock companies which buy large tracts of land and sell it to immigrants at long dates. This is a legitimate speculation and an excelleut way of employing capital: it would prove very profitable in our country, especially to those proprietors who own ports on the Atlantic, the Plate and the Parana; and when the country gets Governments devoted to its true interests, each of these ports will have a light-house and foreign trade, as it ought to have. At present I know of nothing more barbarous and primitive than the aspect of our sea coast and the banks of our rivers. Even the Moors of Barbary have light-houses on their coast; the Argentines have not one, with the exception of the old lightship of the year 1820, on Point Indio. Yet we have 400 leagues of sea coast and 800 on navigable rivers; but they are in the same condition as the unexplored African rivers described by Stanley and Livingstone. The rivers which these explorers ascended in search of the sources of the Nile, on the banks of which only negroes dwell, are quite on a par with our own as far as modern improvement goes; so wrecks are numerous, insurance rates enormous, and people who have once escaped are afraid to travel again.

In the United States, as in England and Australia, light-houses are, in proportion, quite as numerous as lamps in the public streets.

Property and life count for something in advanced countries, and they are well cared for.

We are spending millions on ironclads, but nothing on light-houses One light-house more on the Peruvian coast would have saved the Independencia, and thereby again, have prevented the Chilian invasion.

But another word about poor Ireland: Her misery would cease if those now starving were brought out to the fertile plains of Patagonia, or the South of Buenos Ayres. Ireland's area is 31,871 sq. miles; population 5½ millions, or 169 inhabitants to the square mile, much less than half the density of the population in England. In 1841 she had 8,175,124 inhabitants. The Argentine province of Santiago del Estero has about the same area as Ireland (31,500 sq. miles) but its population is only 130,000, although there is more than room for 8 millions. Entre Rios with its 45,000 sq. miles and 134,000 souls, has not a population equal to this little town of Brighton where I am now writing. Rioja, same are as Ireland, has only 48,000 souls; Catamarca ditto, only 80,000 souls. The Uruguay Republic, with 73,538 sq. miles area, 2½ times Ireland's size, has only 450,000 souls.

It is a most favourable sign to see the foreigners in our country at last making themselves heard in public life; through the General Brown Club one of the chief missions of which will yet be to attract English emigration to the Plate. Considering the great Natural advantages the Plate possesses over Australia and the United States, we could distance both easily if a giant wave of permanent English emigration could be attracted to our shores.

England is as badly off as Ireland, and her peasants are emigrating in thousands. Let it be proclaimed then to both the Irish and English peasantry, that no land on the globe can offer them what the Argentine Republic can. But we must alter our Land Laws, and be in every respect ready to place the new comers in their homes as easily as we would a chessman on the board.

Calvo.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

'Exeunt omnes.' The grand review of the National troops by President Avellaneda to-day, at Palermo, at 9 o'clock a.m., previous to their departure for the frontiers, will bring the political drama of the past week to a felicitous close. If the weather prove fine a large assemblage of spectators may be expected. The Governor of the Province and the Diplomatic Corps have been invited to attend.

The Pacific Company's steamer Cordillera sails for Europe to-day. We are most happy to announce that the quarantine difficulty about her outward passengers has been arranged, and they will not have to return to Europe, as at first expected. Had we sent these emigrants back to Europe, we should have been the laughing-stock of the Old World for months to come. It would have beaten the sheep blunder at Southampton hollow.

We give particulars of the Governor's farewell to the Tiros and Bomberos on Friday in another column. At the review of the Provincial Guard and Police, in Plaza Victoria, early in the day, an incident occurred which shows how thoroughly things have changed since this day week. While the review was going on, the President of the Republic drove through the Plaza, on his way to the Government House, and the Provincial Guard at once formed two lines, presenting arms and lowering the colours as the First Magistrate of the Nation passed between them. It is clear that all is over.

We have advices from Panama to 15th January. The first blast on the Canal was fired at Cerro Culebra on the 10th, by Miss Fernanda de Lesseps, a little lady of 7 years, in presence of her father, M de Lesseps, the Bishop, the President of Panama, the French Consul and other notabilities. Awful earthquakes have taken place in Salvador, whole villages destroyed and great terror in the capital. From Peru there is news of a rising of the negroes in the Chincha district.

There was nothing fresh from Montevideo yesterday. On the opening of the Chambers no fewer than six Deputies sent in their resignation. The Paysandu Exhibition will open to-day: Amongst the curiosities there is the biggest pumpkin ever heard of, weighing 80 lbs.

A mild attempt to bury Carnival decently will be made this evening, in Calle Buen Orden, but the Municipality have vetoed any more masquerade balls. That resort of the 'haut ton,' the Florida Gardens, is open again.

It is announced that the late Col. Mundell, of Paysandu, left a fortune of 600,000 pats. gold (£120,000) and that Dr. Carlos Ramirez has been appointed executor and guardian of his only son.

We are gratified to learn that the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company have increased the salary of their pilot, our old friend Mr. W. Petty, in recognition of his long and successful career in their service. Mr. Petty's zeal and devotion to the interests of the R.M.S.P. Co. have become so well known and justly appreciated by the travelling community of these countries, that this news of their being properly appreciated at head quarters will give great satisfaction to the River Plate public. The presence of Mr. Petty on board a steamer is a solid guarantee that nothing can happen to her while he treads her deck; no steamer under his charge has ever met with an accident, and so well is the ability of this tried seaman known here, that the words 'Petty is on board!' are sufficient to calm the fears of the most timid passenger on nights when 'rude Boreas' takes a fancy to blow even his own teeth out. Many people in Buenos Ayres will remember that when the steamer Evora, of the Ryde line, was on the rocks at Montevideo, with a number of passengers on board, and the sea breaking her up, Mr. Petty, although not the pilot of that line, boarded her at the risk of his life, calmed the fears of the passengers, and remained with them till the following day, when he saw them all safely landed. On numerous other occasions Mr. Petty has also braved every danger to save human life. Cooper's famous 'Pilot' was not more 'to the manner born' than the Royal Mail Company's trusty guide. We congratulate Mr. Petty on the well-deserved increase of his emoluments.

There was something said yesterday about a duel at Montevideo between a foreign editor and a cavalry officer. Editors should stear clear of such warlike customers, unless when they come in the peaceful guise of subscribers, in which case no welcome can be too warm for them, especially if they pay in advance.

Mr. Krausse's very interesting report on the Schools of the Province shows an increase of 2590 in the pupils at public schools during 1879: the attendance at private academies was stationary.

There was an unpleasant scuffle in the Court of First Instance on Thursday owing to a mercantile client wishing to use his revolver to convince his own attorney that there were cleverer men in the profession than the latter, he having lost his case. A bill of costs is always a disagreeable thing to pay, especially for losing one's case, but it is quite unconstitutional to seek to pay it with a revolver.

The Rev. Father Jordan, the most eminent pulpit orator in the Plate, will preach in the Cathedral to-day after the Mass at one o'clock.

A stroll along Paseo Julio at nightfall now is very agreeable. The breeze from the river is one attraction, and the splendid Electric Light at the mast-head of the Italian steamer Umberto is another. The Roads are lighted up for leagues in all directions.

The Porteño, which ought to know, says that Dr. Irigoyen's candidature has gained largely in public favour within the past week. Such was to be expected.

Under the heading 'Thirty Men Hanged,' a morning colleague announces an equal number of marriages in the city during the first fornight of this month.

There is news from London that Mr. Francis Xavier Bravo has some chance of launching his great Paraguayan colonization scheme there. In Madrid they were delighted with it, but they hadn't the cash.

The bakers of Rosario struck a few days ago, and a tremendous run on Bagley's biscuits ensued: scarcely a box left in the place.

On the occasion of the birthday of H.M. the King of Holland, different deputations of Dutchmen went to compliment their Consul, Mr. W. Paats. All the captains of the Dutch ships in port were present. The speech of Captain Keyser of the Thales was worthy of notice; he said, full of enthusisam, that he had travelled nearly all over the world, but had never met with a Consul who protected and gave so much of his time to his countrymen as Mr. Paats, and it is not without reason that he was loved by all of them. In the evening Mr. Paats held a semi-official reception at his quinta; and the 19th of February has again proved how much Mr. Paats is loved by his countrymen and respected by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance.

We have much pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement of flour mills in another column: to us they seem eminently suitable for the requirements of this country, as so many estancieros and colonists live at distances from the camp towns, which precludes them from obtaining fresh bread. The machines are cheap and effective, being easy to work and dividing the wheat, maize, or other meal into five parts, making three qualities of flour, viz., fine, seconds, thirds, pollard and bran. They will keep in repair, with fair usage, from five to six years, grinding from three to four bushels per week, and can then be re-sharpened at a very slight expense. By the introduction of these machines the days of 'biscocho' and 'galleta' are numbered in our camp and colonial districts.

This was a field day on 'Change, and the battle between bulls and bears so hard fought that at 2 o'clock it was rumoured that three brokers were down. The cash sales reached 290,325, opening at 30.90 and closing at 30.55, but even at this figure the market could not be held in, and before 3 o'clock 30,000 pats. were sold cash at 30.45. On last Monday when the market was in a most excited state owing to politics a well known broker fixed the closing price to-day at 30.50; every one laughed at him, and some few bought from him to discover their error to-day. For the end of the month half a million sold from 30.90 to 30.75, and for March a very heavy business at 30.90, for April and May at 31.

Cedulas continue their upward movement at 84½ and closing at 84⅝. Roads and Bridges advanced ¼, and National Bank Shares at last look better and have improved ½.

The most remarkable market feature is that gold did not advance to-day, although the National Government swept the market clean of exchange, taking about 1½ million francs from a private bank at 5.27-28 on plazos and at low interest; the Government also took exchange in the open market, 500,000 francs, at 5.32-33. These large operations had no effect whatever on the gold market. We heard of one transaction in paper at 4.32 yesterday afternoon.

Two of Messrs Lamport & Holt's steamers cleared to-day, they took the following cargoes

Per s.s. Vandyck for Antwerp—

800 bales

To-morrow the Paysandu Exhibition opens, and numbers of persons came up yesterday morning from Montevideo and go up to attend it; we suppose it will be a very grand affair; by the last mail we received an Australian paper giving all about the exhibition there.

The subscription lists to the Irish Relief Fund are now coming in too fast for the printers, the sums will, however, be acknowledged and the lists published subsequently; to-day we received a check from Mr John Kemsley, Salto, B. O. for $f.60 62/100, and from Mr Curry, of Rosario, a check for 1,390 m/c, both of which have been handed to Mr Carroll.

The Port Captain of Montevideo received advice from the North American Commodore that 2 sailors of the ship Marion have died of yellow fever and 16 sick on board; every proper remedy was at once adopted by the port authorities, clothes burnt and crew landed at a separate hospital on Flores Island.

The steamer Galicia left Rio on Thursday and is due here on Monday.

The sale of 2000 dry American hides in Montevideo at 7.10 reported; also 2000 arr. criollo wool reserved price.

The killing at the Montevidean saladeros to date stands so—

The Eastern Argentine Railway has, we believe, made a reduction of freights of 43 o/o on cases of dry goods coming from Montevideo for Upper Uruguay.

The sale of a Cordobese bullock at 500 m/c by Huss, is reported.

The purchase of all the wheat in the partido of Chacabuco, for accout of Sr Maderna, is reported, 1,800 fanegas at 190 to 200 m/c. Also all the wheat crop of Sr Faucon of Bragado at 205. Sr Molina of Chivilcoy has sold all the wheat he bought up at the rate of 216 m/c per fanega. Mr Pechieu has resold same at 250 m/c. There is more money turned over in wheat than what people know of.

The fine steamer Habsburg has entered with 37 passengers and 450 tons cargo.

Messrs Baltar & Quesada the renowned city auctioneers sold yesterday the house in Calle Florida Nos. 380 and 382 for 530,000 m/c, The legal valuation was 500,000 m/c.

We received from Montevideo this morning Cuadros Estadisticos for the year 1878. The Montevideans are very strong in figures etc, but on the present occasion they are a year behind; 1879 we look for now, and not 1878.

As appears by a business card in another column, Mr Auchterlonie, who has such a wide circle of friends in this market, starts as general broker; we feel quite sure he will meet with the fullest support.

The heat to-day and the hub bub around the gold ring which always adds to its intensity, was far worse than yesterday and scors of brokers and barraqueros leave town to-night for the Tigre, other by first train to-morrow for a swim. It would seem that the great heat of the summer is only coming now; the blaze in the street was tremendous, and white hats and coats were the order of the day.

Mr Benitz requests us to correct the statement of our Rosario correspondent respecting the Espin Colony, which is only from 12 to 15 miles West of the Alexandra Colony, instead of 50 as stated. The occupation of the people there is not agriculture, but raising cattle and cutting timber. Mr Benitz holds 18 square leagues of land up there; he leaves to-morrow for Rosario and Gran Chaco and will return in about 2 months. He is chartering a vessel to load direct for Europe. We believe two or three others have already left.

The Bolsa was very crowded at afterhours, and the payments at the tables were estimated at close on fifty millions, whilst in at the liquidation counter the press and squeeze was such that it was difficult to know what was going on. Gold danced about; the lowest sale of the day was at 30.45, and the highest at 5 o'clock 30.70. The prices were purely fictitious and depended upon the mere closing of purely speculative sales.

Mr. Thomas Duggan was welcomed on 'Change on his return from the North. He reports the camps in good condition, and not at all that political alarm that was experienced in the city. Mr Charles Haddon, of Tarapaca, took leave of his friends; he sails to-morrow in Denderah for West Coast.

Mess s Rossi and Johnstone chartered today Norwegian brig Flid, to load quebracho wood in Gran Chaco direct for Europa at reserved price.

At 5 o'clock gold remained over on the liquidator's counter, and an auction called, Mr. Fred. Jacobs, auctioneer.

5,000 pats sold at 30.65

The best news on 'Change this morning was that Mr Christophersen had arranged with the Minister of War about the 78 emigrant passengers on board the Cordillera. It would really never do to allow these poor people to be sent back to Europe because we had no lazarretto accommodation for them. Such an affair would damage the country even more than a revolution. Mr Dillon's Immigration Department would be a perfect sham, if the immigrants when they come out had to be sent back again. Luckily the War Minister, Sr. Pelligrini, took the proper view of the matter, and Mr Casares has supplied a large vessel whereon to keep the poor immigrants until their quarantime term expires. Mr Christophersen's great exertions in the matter merit every praise, and but for his ceaseless efforts it is probable the steamer would have been compelled to take back the immigrants, as the state of affairs at the Government House for the last week was not such as to admit of much consideration. This Cordillera business is another lesson to our public men of the great and immediate necessity of at once building a Lazaretto. Last year we took up this subject and wrote until we tired our readers about it, but it seems we never tired the Government. A special commission was named to select a proper spot, and the whole season frittered away in notes and nonsense; verily it would seem that the committee was named to persuade the public not to build a Lazaretto. Now the Cordillera case occurs, and just as we shut the temple of Janus by the arrangement of 18th inst. we open the temple of Momus at the Immigration Department. Whoever regards this country the same as any other errs. Argentine affairs require Argentine views. A European view of Argentine matters is invariably a blunder; at a day's notice we can make a fine military encampment at the Chacarita, but it takes years and years to make a Lazaretto.

The week has proved one of the most eventful in our history, and some of the oldest men on 'Change witnessed within the last 6 days what they had not seen in a life time. The political rumpus, as we have already noticed, will, however, do a world of good, and has immensely increased confidence in the country and market. Business, as a matter of course suffered some interruption, but only in this province; elsewhere everything has held its normal state. The gold business on the Bolsa has received a very great impetus, but then this business is the last of all calculated to help the country or benefit the people. Strange stories are told on 'Change of parties who sold persistently at 31.80, and convinced that all would be arranged have made handsomely; but there are crowds, both in and out of the Bolsa, who have to carry dear gold. The wool trade of the week has proved more active than ever; the arrivals from the camp, large and important as they were each morning, were insufficient to meet the demand, and over one hundred thousand arrobas have been purchased in the deposits. Far over half a million of ars. have been sold during the week, and the payments for produce of every description on the Bolsa were up to those of any Saturday during the season. Paper money is tight, growing tighter, and in a few months will be tightest; the probabilities now stare the market in the face, that the Bank will soon be able to open the 'oficina de cambios' on the basis of giving gold for paper at whatever rate they chose to adopt. The paper money question is at last solved, and when Dr Plaza pays to the Prov. Bank the two quarters amortizations which the Nat. Government owes to the Provincial Bank, and that paper money is destroyed, the tension in the paper money market will be such that the gold ring on the Bolsa may close up.

Mr Hermann Altgelt, under date of Feb. 20th 1880, publishes a wheat and cereal circular which gives as follows—

Arrivals during week—

	Wheat. Kgs.	Flour. Kgs.	Maize Kgs.
By Rivers.....	505,436	9,514	69,130
West. Railway..	753,574	12,420	111,209
South. Railway..	120,250	—	153,300
In carts.....	45,000	—	—
Total.....	1,424,200	21,934	333,639

Also 1,203 bales hay, 27 bales tobacco, and 8,109 bags wheat, and 799 bags maize not included in above. Exports, nil. Although the wheat arrivals from all parts show great increase, still prices have advanced to 245 m/c. being the highest price paid. We need expect but little from Rosario, as the millers of Entre Rios, Sta. Fe, and San Nicolas are buying largely in Rosario. The sale of 75,000 ar. wheat in Rosario at the high figure of 18 Bol. per fan. of 15 ar. in deposit, whilst a lot of machine cleaned wheat from Rosario has been sold here at 225 m/c per fan. of 9 ar. Wheat rules 10 m/c higher than last week. Flour buyers at 40-42, and maize good sells at 78 to 80 per fan., and picado at 50.

Messrs Wissner & Chapeaurouge, in their important circular, give the following on the corn market:—

"The arrivals of wheat during the last week were:—

	Wheat. Fans.	Flour. Bags	Flour. Arrobas
Western Railway	11,027	135
South. Railway ..	2,700	—
Vessels, Boca ...	2,965	—
	16,692	135

"Fully ⅔ of the arrivals are from the Coast and Salado; wheat is scarce, many acopiadores in the camp have bought out there at high prices. The arrivals from Rosario are insignificant, they pay up there 200-210 for fan. 9 ar. which is higher than in this market for that class. Flour rising, owing to active demand, and very few arrivals from San Juan and Mendoza."

The current price of peaches in the Boca we hear is $2 m/c. per 400 peaches. Search the world round there is nothing to beat this in the peach line.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Muy importante para el Publico.

Poseido de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como tales las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con esto reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.

WHEREAS the General Manager of the Mercantile Bank, John M.
